

Hot Weather Hymn

Whoever invented the shower bath
Accept full thanks on our behalf.

For lake and shore and orange peels
Where bulgy people sport like seals.

And for the fan, a word we say
It keeps heat MOVING anyway.

For theatres so cold and dank
Like seeing pictures in a tank.

And for the honest soul you meet
Who doesn't crab about his feet,
And doesn't have the crust to say
“It's a little COOLER, Sir, to-day.”

© Mona McTavish Gould

This poem is covered by a Creative Commons Canada Attribution No-Derivatives Licence. It may be shared freely, but please quote accurately and acknowledge the author each time the poem is used.