

This Proud Moment

This ... the proud moment we have waited for;
History stands still. It is writ upon our shores:
Princess, called "Lillybet" when she was small
Now woman grown ... a mother ... future Queen
Her handsome Philip ... husband ... by her side.
This is the moment!

Now we are host to Britain's Royal best
All pulses quicken. This is for remembrance.
No blade of grass, no tree but puts on beauty
Comparisioned in pride, our country goes
All ... all we have, we pour in outstretched greeting
To clasp this Stalwart ... and his English Rose.

© Mona McTavish Gould

This poem is covered by a Creative Commons Canada Attribution No-Derivatives Licence. It may be shared freely, but please quote accurately and acknowledge the author each time the poem is used.